

Beware of Mortgage “Rescue” Scams!

Did you know that state and federal laws prohibit people from charging you for help with foreclosure prevention or with lowering your interest rate? It is illegal for someone to collect your money first before provide they begin to provide help.

If you suspect that you have become the victim of this illegal practice, called a mortgage rescue scam, please call the Metro Milwaukee Fair Housing Council, a nonprofit agency that will help you – for free! Call the Fair Housing Council at (414) 278-1240, or from outside of Milwaukee County, call toll-free: (877) 647-3247.

The Fair Housing Council will help you file complaints against the scammer, and if at all possible, help you to get your money back!

“Rescue” scams come in many disguises. Some foreclosure-related scams to beware of:

- The scam artist (sometimes posing as an attorney) tells you that he/she can negotiate a deal with your lender to save your home - if you pay a fee. Once you pay, the scam artist takes off with your money.
- You are asked to make all your mortgage payments directly to the scam artists while they negotiate with the lender. After collecting your payments for a few months, the scammer disappears with your money and you still owe the lender.
- You think you’re signing documents for a new loan to make your existing mortgage current—but instead, you have given the scammers ownership - the deed to your home.
- You surrender the title to your home as part of a deal that allows you to remain in your home as a renter, and buy it back later. But you lose all rights, and the scammer takes the equity in your home.
- A scam artist offers to find a buyer for your home, but only if you sign over the deed and move out. Once you transfer the deed, the scam artist rents out the home and pockets the proceeds while the foreclosure continues. You lose your home—and you’re still responsible for the unpaid mortgage.

Tips to avoid mortgage rescue scams and mortgage fraud:

- Avoid anyone who asks for money – especially money up front - to help you modify your loan. A scammer may be a loss mitigation company, a lawyer, a real estate broker, and/or someone who uses government logos and offers “special programs” to appear that they can offer legitimate help.
- Instead, find a nonprofit housing counselor who will help you for free. Simply enter your zip code on this site: www.findaforeclosurecounselor.org or check out www.hud.gov. The staff at these nonprofit agencies provide professional assistance at no cost to you.
- Beware of offers or promises that seem too good to be true. Be especially wary of guaranteed results.
- Do not give away your Power of Attorney.
- Do not be pressured to sign any contract. Take your time to review all documents thoroughly.
- Don’t sign away ownership of your house (don’t transfer the deed) to anyone without advice from a nonprofit housing counselor or a reputable, experienced real estate lawyer.
- If your English-speaking skills are limited, bring your own trusted translator to any financial or homeownership negotiations.
